COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The antiphon is sung by all, and the choir sings the verses.

SONG OF PRAISE, H-1982 #S-266

A Song to the Lamb

Calvin Hampton

Introduction Antiphon

Splen - dor and hon - or and king - ly power are yours by right, O Lord our God,

Splendor and honor and kingly power are yours by right O Lord our God, for you created everything that is, and by your will they were created and have their being. Antiphon

And yours by right, O Lamb that was slain, for with your blood you have redeemed for God, from every family, language, people, and nation, a kingdom of priests to serve our God. Antiphon

And so, to him who sits upon the throne, and to Christ the Lamb, be worship and praise, dominion and splendor, for ever and for ever more. Antiphon

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A READING FROM THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

ACTS 5:27-32

When the temple police had brought the apostles, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

A READING FROM THE REVELATION TO JOHN

REVELATION 1:4-8

John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

We Walk By Faith, and Not By Sight

ST. BOTOLPH

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF OUR SAVIOR JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO JOHN

JOHN 20:19-31

People Glory to you, O Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

SERMON

The Reverend Canon Jennifer Deaton
Canon for Pastoral Care

NICENE CREED

BCP, PAGE 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and

All now stand. All sing the following refrain as the gospel procession moves into the congregation. At this time, children ages 3 to 5 are invited to follow the Children's Chapel Leaders to the Chapel. Older children are invited to come and serve as helpers.

Following the sermon, a brief silence is held for reflection. Then all stand and say the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers call to mind the needs, concerns, and hopes of the congregation and of the world. The Deacon bids the prayers, which are then led by an Intercessor.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Based on Form IV

BCP, PAGE 388

That all may experience the new life in Christ in the midst of the old life of sin and doubt, let us pray for people everywhere according to their need, saying: Risen Christ, hear our prayer. In the pauses, you are welcome name aloud those persons or situations for which you pray.

Intercessor Risen Christ,
People Hear our prayer.

O God, we believe; help our unbelief, and hear us for the sake of the one who died for our sins and rose again for our salvation, even Jesus Christ, the first and the last, the living one, in whose name we pray.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, God Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For through the risen Jesus Christ, you breathe on us the Holy Spirit of everlasting life. In him, you give us faith to believe in things we cannot yet see or understand; in him, you give us strength and fellowship through the mysteries of this Holy Communion. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices and Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS H-1982 #S-125

from A Community Mass, Richard Proulx

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The People stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Creator of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me" After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All say

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again

The Presider continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal reign. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

The table of bread and wine is the table of company with Jesus, and all those who love him. So come to this table, you who have much faith, and you who would like to have more; you who have been to this Sacrament often, and you who have not been for a long time; you who have tried to follow Jesus in the world, and you who have failed; come. It is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

For Holy Communion, receive the bread in the open palms. The wine may be taken from the common cup by drinking, placing your hand gently on the base of the chalice to guide it, or by carefully dipping the bread in the chalice. If you'd prefer not to receive Holy Communion but would instead like a blessing, please come forward and indicate that by crossing your arms over your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP, from Enriching our Worship I

Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

As the procession passes down the aisle, the people turn and face the doors of the Cathedral.

PASTORAL CARE AT ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL

Weddings and Baptisms	Please call the Cathedral and speak to one of our clergy.
Prayer List	On Sunday mornings, our prayer list holds those in acute need of prayer. At our daily weekday services, another prayer list holds those whose need for prayer is less acute but longer term. To add or renew a name on either of these lists, please call the Rev. Jennifer Deaton, 601-354-1535, ext. 2736, or email jdeaton@standrews.ms
Prayer Chain	For prayers at any time, please call in your prayer request to one of our confidential Prayer Chains. For the morning prayer chain, call Melissa Crouch at 601-672-8952; for the evening prayer chain, call Barbara Redmont at 601-951-7973.
Home Communion	If you are unable to leave home and need communion brought to you on a Sunday morning, or any time, please call the Cathedral and speak to one of our clergy.
Hospital Visits, Home Visits, and Pastoral Counseling:	Privacy considerations prohibit hospitals or medical professionals from letting us know when a parishioner is hospitalized. We care deeply about your needs and want to reach out with prayer and pastoral assistance; however, we depend upon you to let us know when a need arises: hospitalization, illness, or any other pastoral concern. Please call the Cathedral and speak to one of our clergy if you or a family member would like a pastoral visit. If you experience a pastoral emergency, please call 601-354-1535, ext. 2736.

Patens, Purificators, and Palls, Oh-My!, Join us next Sunday, May 5 as we gather in the Cathedral during the formation hour for a tour of our Sacristy and other seemingly secret passageways our Altar Guild members know how to navigate as they prepare our beautiful Cathedral for worship. Learn why a candle burns perpetually in the chapel, where our blessed bread and wine wait for us to celebrate the Eucharist, and how many different light switches there are in the Nave (and learn what a Nave is!). You don't have to be joining the Altar Guild to take the tour, though you'll also hear from our new Altar Guild Chair, Rachel Newman, about how you can offer a small amount of your time to this very special ministry if you feel called to do so.

Interest Session for 2020 Pilgrimage to Iona, Scotland In July of 2020, the Rev. Hailey Allin and the Rev. Jennifer Deaton will lead a pilgrimage to the sacred island of Iona, in the Inner Hebrides off the southwest coast of Scotland. If you would like to learn more about Iona, and about this opportunity to travel in the footsteps of 1500 years worth of Christian pilgrims (including pilgrims from St. Andrew's Cathedral in 2016 and 2018), please join us for an information session at 9:45 am (during the formation hour) on Sunday, May 19, in St. Francis Hall.

Wednesday Lunch Bunch Bible Study: Join the Rev. Canon Katie Bradshaw for lunch and Bible study on Wednesdays, Noon – 1:00 p.m., in the Community Room at Whole Foods.

Bishop's Visit on Mother's Day - May 12 The Rt. Rev. Brian R. Seage will make his official Episcopal visit to the Cathedral on Mother's Day, at all three morning services. Please help us welcome him, and celebrate with those who will be baptized, confirmed, and received on that day. The Holy Smokers will be hosting a reception in his honor in the Parish Hall during the formation hour.

Dates for Holy Baptism: The scheduled dates for the year 2019 for Holy Baptism will be Sunday, May 12, 2019, Mother's Day; Sunday, June 9, 2019, Pentecost; All Saints' Sunday, November 3, 2019. Anyone interested in receiving baptism should contact the Rev. Jennifer Deaton, at 601-487-2736 or jdeaton@standrews.ms

Many Thanks to everyone who brought books for Watkins Elementary School second graders. Our 28 students will each have several books to take home "for good" and enjoy over summer. We have had a wonderful experience coaching these students and cannot wait to see whether the Arise2Read post test shows that their reading skills have improved. We are sure they have!!

The Women's Book Study meet on Wednesday evenings in St. Francis Hall. Our new book is Beulah, by The Right Rev. Kee Sloan. We have refreshments and libations at 5:30, then hold our book conversation from 6:00-7:00 pm. Books are available at Lemuria. All women are invited!

Brotherhood of St. Andrew meets every Tuesday at noon St. Francis Hall. All are welcome and bring your own lunch. For information, call David Morse, 601-953-7712
