Letter From the Dean

Gracious God bless the hands and hearts engaged in your ministry in this place.

Did you know we have people who: carry the cross, set the silver for the Eucharist, read lessons, prepare food for receptions, decorate for parties, take Communion to people in their homes, arrange flowers, deconstruct flower arrangements, live stream services, serve breakfast to the homeless, tape morning prayer, paint pumpkins, lead the prayers of the people, plan activities for children, light candles and set the altar book, help others grieve, sing in the choir, play gargoyles, lead EfM, participate in EfM, drive the van, greet newcomers, prepare the Nave for funerals, lay out baptismal candles, assist with weddings - calm the bride, find the groom, and that's just a sample of what we already do. Imagine what we could accomplish if you joined us!

Where will you engage in your Cathedral this year?

Grace and Peace,

The Very Rev. Anne M. Maxwell, Dean
