Thanksgiving From the Dean

Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for the splendor and beauty of the whole creation, for the wonder of your love, for the joy in fellowship of St. Andrew's Cathedral. We are grateful for all who have given to the stewardship of our mission and ministry in dollars that support our work. We are grateful for all who have contributed of their heart in ministries for: the beauty of our buildings and grounds, social gatherings that spread joy, quiet liturgies that sooth pain, music that inspires, small groups that minister to needs and challenge our minds, offerings of food that nourishes bodies and hearts, embodied faith that promotes justice and mercy to our neighbors and community partners. Above all, we give you thanks for your loving promise given to us in Christ Jesus our Lord; to you be praise, Creator, Word, and Spirit. Amen

Grace and Peace,

The Very Rev. Anne M. Maxwell, Dean

Friday, December 8th—Sunday, December 10th

Info & registration at standrews.ms/journeyseries.

St. Nicholas' Visit

Sunday, December 10th

St. Nicholas was a 4th century bishop. There are many legends of Nicholas secretly giving gifts to poor children and covering the dowry of young women intent on marriage. St. Nicholas will join us to share his story.

All Saints' Sunday Flower dedications are due by Wednesday, November 3rd to be included in that Sunday's bulletin. Please send your contribution to the church office and direct any questions to Laurie McCarley at lauriemc@standrews.ms.

Advent Lessons and Carols

Sunday, December 10th, 4:00pm

Reception to follow.

Advent Market

Thursday, December 14th, 5:00-7:00pm

Vendors from our Parish and local community will be selling gifts, trinkets, snacks and more! A portion of the evening's proceeds will support our Angel Tree ministry through Good Samaritan Center, which provides Christmas gifts to local families in need. Vendor sign-up is at standrews.ms/adventmarket.

Greening of the Cathedral

December 23rd & 24th

Specific times TBA.
