Letter From the Dean

Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

As Easter people, we are to show forth in our lives what we profess by our faith through Jesus Christ our Lord. That simple and that complicated. The body language of Holy Week - waving palms, washing feet, eating bread, drinking wine, kneeling before the Cross - now becomes the embodied witness of Easter. How will the world know that Christ is risen? The world will come to believe when they see us, the Body of Christ, with all of our wounds, our vulnerability on display, offer peace and reconciliation. There is no more powerful witness of what we have seen in Christ than to offer the same love we have been given. First we have to believe it, and then we have to live it.

The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

The Very Rev. Anne M. Maxwell, Dean

Joyfully proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ through grace-filled worship, radical hospitality, and incarnational faith.
