Letter From the Dean

Joyfully proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ through grace-filled worship, radical hospitality, and incarnational faith is our vision statement. That is both what we do, and what we aspire to do, as the Cathedral. Often we show hospitality as we greet people at the door and share the peace. What does it mean to kick that up a notch and consider radical hospitality? Beyond inviting them to share cookies in the Parish hall, are we doing all that we can to welcome people, and make room for them, to be who they are? We start with a good welcoming.

This summer as we welcome travelers and visitors, remember the 3 row rule. Notice your row, as well as the one before, and the one behind you. If you don't know someone, introduce yourself. It may be someone who has traveled all the way from California, or it may be someone who has just come from the other service, but they are new to you, so don't be embarrassed to reach out.

Welcome to your Cathedral!

Grace and Peace,
