Letter From the Dean

“I don’t think any amount of data will ever change hearts and minds, but it’s the stories, it’s the prayer, it’s conversation, it’s dialogue.”

—contemplative activist
Alison McCrary

She said this about changing hearts on the steps of the capitol, and I believe this is just as true on the steps of the Cathedral. It is when we show up, when we gather, when we work and pray and sing together, that hearts are changed, because we learn each other’s stories, and see each other grow. I encourage you to pay attention this fall; look over the various offerings from educational opportunities, to worship, to parties, and see where you can join us in person, whole-heartedly, and celebrate God’s presence among us. Together in prayer and dialogue, we build our story as the Cathedral community. Join us so we can say of one another:

“I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, thankful for your partnership in the gospel.” (Philippians 1:3)

Grace and Peace,

The Very Rev. Anne M. Maxwell, Dean

Joyfully proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ through grace-filled worship, radical hospitality, and incarnational faith.
