Letter From the Dean

With a very serious expression she asked, “Can you put these in the plate for me?” Then she handed me four pennies, one dime, and two nickels still warm from being carried tightly in her hand. Even at age six, she understands the importance of making a contribution. I suspect she wouldn’t articulate an offertory theology. She might not grasp the concept that all that we are, and all that we have, comes from God, and in thanksgiving for the relationship, we offer some portion back to God. But then again maybe she would, because she comes to church a lot, and she came to find me to make sure her coins were added to the rest. That is the heart of stewardship—showing up, and making sure our thanksgivings are added with the rest, that we are in communion with our Cathedral family, adding our gifts and talents to support the whole.

Grace and Peace,

The Very Rev. Anne M. Maxwell, Dean

Joyfully proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ through grace-filled worship, radical hospitality, and incarnational faith.

Staff Singers – $2000/semester

St. Andrew's Episcopal Cathedral is seeking staff singers for the 2024–2025 academic year. These paid positions require availability on most Wednesday nights and Sunday mornings September–May. The ideal candidate is a confident singer, capable sight-reader, and has previous choral experience. These positions carry a $2000/semester stipend. We are especially interested in recruiting tenor and bass voices.

Please contact Jessica Nelson via email (jnelson@standrewscathedral.org) for more information.

Take the Time to Fall in Love Again

A one-day women's retreat

Solomon Center
Thursday, October 10th
9:00am to 2:00pm

Jesus asks; “Do you love me?” My answer feels muddled, “Yeah, I guess, I mean, sure, of course.” But somewhere deep inside I wonder if I even know what I am committing to. Do I know what it means to love God? To love myself? Do I know love, not in an academic way, but from my heart? Take the time to answer that question with quiet reflection, art, and discussion. Give yourself the day to fall in love again.
