Music in the City

Tues., Nov. 4th, cash bar 5:15pm, performance 5:45pm

At the Mississippi Museum of Art. Violinist Bonnie Brown and pianist Lynn Raley present an evening devoted to Johannes Brahms's three Sonatas for Violin and Piano—a rare opportunity to experience this complete set performed in a single concert.

Folk Sunday with the Red Hots!

Sunday, November 9th, 10:30am

The National Folk Festival is in downtown Jackson this year from November 7-9. We will be providing green room space for musicians and, on Sunday, will feature folksy church music at the 10:30 service provided by the Red Hots!

Feast of St. Andrew

Sunday, November 23rd, 9:30am

Learn more about our Community Partners—we'll have brief talks from Robert Langford, Operation Shoestring; Merrill McKewen, Habitat for Humanity; and Jill Buckley, Stewpot.

Metropolitan Chamber Orchestra

Sunday, November 23rd, 3:00pm

A performance in the Cathedral nave featuring Finlandia by Jean Sibelius, Concertino for Trombone and Orchestra by Ferdinand David with Jude Morris, soloist, and Symphony No. 2 "Romantic" by Howard Hanson.

We will welcome guest preacher Rev. Buddy Stallings on November 9th and Rev. Hailey Allin on November 16th (8:30 service only).

STEWARDSHIP 2026

FAITH & WORKS

ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL

"You see one's faith and one's actions were working together, and faith was made complete by what was done."
—James 2:22

Today we celebrate our stewardship campaign for 2026! To those who have already made their pledge for the year, thank you so much. If you haven't had a chance to do so, that's okay! You can still turn in a physical card or pledge online any time at standrews.ms/stewardship. An extra special thanks to Mary Kate Surkin Dalton, Stephen Stray, Robert Langford, and Dorothy Triplett for participating in this year's St. Andrew's Stories. If you missed any of this year's videos, you can find them at the stewardship link above! Whether you've pledged already or are in the process of doing so, please join us at 11:30 for our brunch celebrating this year's campaign!
